

a Bill Dumas film

missing, presumed dead: The Search for America's POWs

“This rough-cut is great. The finished film will be FANTASTIC! Everything it says is the truth”

-Ross Perot (Feb. 2004)

TIME IS RUNNING OUT FOR OUR KOREAN WAR POWS

Director's Statement

I began this project over 3 1/2 years ago with a modest goal to tell the story of Bob Dumas' 50-year mission to find his POW brother, Roger, who was abandoned in North Korea after the war. The scope of the film quickly expanded to include hundreds of other abandoned POWs from the Korean War, Vietnam War, WWII, the Cold War and Desert Storm.

Though this issue has been diligently shepherded by a dedicated group of POW/MIA families and advocates it is time to bring it to the NATIONAL STAGE. We must elevate our POW/MIAs to the forefront of our nation's priorities. Film has the power to create such a mandate.

I need your help to expose this film to the American public. As our distributor (7th Art Releasing) works to bring this film to TV and cable outlets, we can all work together to expose this story through local screenings at theaters, schools, libraries, veteran and civic organizations and home screening events.

I will be taking this film on a screening/lecture tour in 2005 and get to meet with the many contributors to this film. Any ideas, contacts and help in making that happen will be appreciated.

Now is the time. Our POW/MIAs can't wait any longer.
